

Pre-School Menu of Learning

Make some playdough together (recipe here)	Practise your scissor skills. Can you cut up some paper...another fun way is to use the scissors to cut up lettuce!	Number Jacks!	Make your own boomerang and didgeridoo! You could use cardboard to make them. You could use cotton buds to do some Aboriginal painting
Using your playdough, have a dough disco! Dough Disco songs	Visit Topmarks for a range of Early Years maths games.	Go on a shape hunt. Can you find circles, triangles, rectangles and squares? Are there any other shapes you can find?	Can you find out about British landmarks and Australian landmarks. Why are they famous?
Visit Oxford Owl for some free e-books to share together!	Go on a sound hunt. What do you hear? You could make your own listening ears to take with you!	Listen to different types of music – what instruments can you hear? Can you clap along to the rhythm?	Can you practise writing your name? Do you know the sounds that are in your name?
Practise your counting. Can you count all of the fruit in your kitchen or all of your toys?	Visit Phonics Play and try some of the Phase 1 phonics games.	Visit Cbeebies for some stories and BBC Teach for some number songs!	Can you draw your self portrait? Can you draw all of your family?
Visit Cosmic Kids for some yoga fun!	Go for a walk, can you find any signs of winter?	Watch ‘The Great Barrier Reef’ – what different things can you see?	Can you make an ‘under the sea’ picture

